Healthcare Fraud: Doctor Convicted Based On Nurses' Testimony.

he physician was a board-certified her daughter. internist who owned and operated a solo hematology/oncology practice.

volved outpatient administration of chemo and other drugs by nurses employed by the dosages of the drugs actually administered the hospital. and billing for office visits where the phyfact only a nurse interacted with them.

The physician was convicted on twenty-eight separate counts and sentenced to five years in prison plus more than one million dollars restitution.

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOURTH CIRCUIT January 18, 2012

The US Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit upheld the physician's convictions and the sentence imposed.

corded the dosages of the drugs they ad- ily's lawsuit against the hospital. ministered to the patients, but the physician went back and changed their chart notes.

The nurses said they were told to split 40,000 unit vials of Procrit, giving 20,000 each to two different patients but recording provided that she was to be turned every placed back on restorative rehabilitation each patient as having received 40,000 units for which the physician billed Medi- failed to document she was turned accord- training for transfers, gait, balance, elevacare and other insurances.

The nurses also testified there was a in for an injection from the nurse and never needs, even with the best of nursing care. saw the physician.

physician ordered an office-wide audit substandard nursing care, even if it was would be considered skilled nursing care involving wholesale shredding of patient responsible for the patient's bedsores, had covered under Medicare Part A rather than files, which was where the nurses finally any cause-and-effect relationship with her just personal care not covered by Medirefused to go along. US v. Polin, 2012 WL death. Jackson v. Oktibbetha County Hosp., care. Glick v. Johnson, 2011 WL 6140523 130753 (4th Cir., January 18, 2012).

Bedsores: No Negligence Found.

he elderly patient was admitted to the hospital's intensive care unit after she was found at home lying in a pool of blood. She was being cared for at home by

Her medical problems included ane-Much of the activity in the office in- acute kidney failure, diabetes and hyper- and long term physical and occupational tension. She had a history of a stroke which left her unable to talk and partially physician. The fraud charges against the paralyzed. She did not have decubitus ul- decision to the state quality improvement physician stemmed from overbilling for the cers or bedsores when she was admitted to organization and eventually the US District sician supposedly saw the patients when in bladder cancer the family discovered she nursing coverage through Medicare. had bedsores and took her back to the hospital where she died four days later from cardiopulmonary arrest.

> The hospital provided expert testimony that bed sores may be unavoidable in patients in this patient's condition, even when entirely appropriate nursing care is provided.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT MISSISSIPPI January 9, 2012

The US District Court for the Northern Nurses testified they accurately re- District of Mississippi dismissed the fam-

> The case was dismissed even though the nursing admission assessment in the ing to the care plan, if at all.

standing practice in the office to bill office submitted by the hospital that bedsores can door surfaces, become independent in car visits as Level 3, involving contact with be unavoidable in a patient like this one transfers, be able to negotiate up and down the physician, when the patients only came with complex medical issues and care curbs and cross a street in the time frame

> At the same time there was no expert 2012 WL 39399 (N.D. Miss., January 9, 2012).

Skilled Nursing: Court Extends Patient's Medicare Eligibility.

he nursing facility resident was notified that Medicare would be terminatmia from loss of blood, bladder cancer, ing his eligibility because his short term therapy goals had been achieved.

Nevertheless his family appealed the Court for the Eastern District of New York After discharge following surgery for ruled he was eligible for continued skilled > Federal regulations state that if the patient's overall condition would support a finding that recovery and safety can be assured only if the total care is planned, managed and evaluated by technical or professional personnel, it would be appropriate to infer skilled services are being provided, 42 CFR 409.32(b).

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT NEW YORK December 9, 2011

During the five-day period in question chart identified the patient as high-risk for the patient needed not only to receive perproblems with skin integrity, the care plan sonal care in the facility but was also two hours and the nursing flow charts which included therapeutic exercise and tion and endurance, the stated goals being The Court accepted expert testimony that he would be able to ambulate on outof a stop light.

According to the Court, his stay in the After Federal subpoenas came in the testimony submitted by the family that facility while receiving these services (E.D.N.Y., December 9, 2011).

Legal Eagle Eye Newsletter for the Nursing Profession

February 2012